Withdrawal of CRPF batallion from Balaghat, M.P.

†917. SHRI PYARELAL KHANDELWAL: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether the Central Government have withdrawn the CRPF batallion from naxal-affected Balaghat district in Madhya Pradesh;

†Original notice of the question was received in Hindi.

(b) whether Madhya Pradesh Government has asked the Central Government to redeploy the CRPF batallion in the said naxal-affected areas;

(c) if so, the details thereof;

(d) whether it is a fact that naxalite violence has intensified during the past few years; and

(e) if so the details of efforts being made by Government to stop the violence?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI SHRIPRAKASH JAISWAL): (a) to (c) One batallion of CRPF was temporarily withdrawn from Madhya Pradesh and deployed in Chhattisgarh for special anti-naxalite operations. One batallion has since been re-deployed in Madhya Pradesh.

(d) In 2005, 20 naxal incidents involving 3 casualties were reported from Madhya Pradesh as against 13 such incidents involving 4 casualties in 2004. During the current year till June end, 5 incidents have been reported from the State.

(e) The Government has been pursuing a multi-pronged approach to address the problem on politcal, security and development fronts in a coordinated manner. The Central Government has taken specific measures to coordinate and supplement the efforts and resources of the naxal affected States on both security and development fronts to meet the challenge posed by the naxal problem.

Assistance provided to Madhya Pradesh and Chhattisgarh for tackling naxalism
